James Treat newest 300 game bowler

James Treat (above), bowled a perfect 300 game Sunday in the Wayne County Open Bowling Tournament at Wallenpaupack Lanes. He bowled the 300 in the fourth game of the qualifying ground, in which he had a six-game score of 1,378.

It was the second 300 game bowled by Treat in the past two weeks. On Saturday, Nov. 27, he bowled 300 to win the King of the Hill at Wallenpaupack Lanes.

Treat bowls in the Wayne-Pike League and Wallenpaupack Men's League, and carries a 202 average in the Wayne-Pike. He has been bowling for about 10 years.
